Iowa State Fair Opening Wins to Inman, Knopf, Clark, Lundy, Dawson and Bonnett

(Des Moines, Iowa)(April 7, 2006) The 2006 racing season opened on a cool and windy Friday evening at the Iowa State Fair Speedway. The program sped along and was complete by 9:30 PM.

Todd Inman won the IMCA modified feature with Dave Farren Jr. running second.

Veteran driver Kent Knopf picked up the IMCA stock car win in a race that went green to checkered. Steve Jackson finished second and Jeff Johnson was third.

In the first of two IMCA hobby stock races, Bill Dawson beat Todd Bass to the finish in a close race with Rob Allison in fourth. In the second main, Bill Bonnett started in the back of the field and raced to the front to claim the victory. Bruce Wolfe was second and Michael Davis third.

The IMCA SportMod feature winner was Ryan Lundy followed by Jacob Murray and Rick Gladson

Rick Clark made a dramatic last-lap pass of Matt Waugh to win the Cookies BBQ Truck Series feature. Waugh finished second with Josh Hull third.

Racing continues next Friday featuring IMCA modifieds, stock cars, hobby stocks, SportMods, Cookies BBQ truck series, and dwarf cars. IMCA late models will open the season on April 21. Hot laps are scheduled for 6:00 PM with racing following.
